From the M6 junction 32 (8 to 10 minutes driving). Leave the M6 at junction 32 briefly onto the M55 leaving at junction 1 and follow the signs for GARSTANG. At the first set of lights turn RIGHT following signs for GOOSNARGH and LONGRIDGE. Pass through the village of Goosnargh staying on the main road. As you leave the village at the far side you come to a right hand bend. Head straight up the small country lane called 'Camforth Hall Lane.' You will now notice 'Horns Inn' on the sign posts. ## Circular walks from Ye Horns Inn

1. Starting from the Horns Inn Car park, head off down Horns Lane with the patio area and caravan park on your right.
2. Take the first turning on the right, Ford Lane, passing the Cottage Tearooms on the left.
3. Look for a stile on the left after passing the tearooms and enter rough pasture descending to cross a muddy stream by a plank bridge.
4. Climb up the bank on the other side with a boundary fence and hedge on your left and where it dog-legs left, cross a stile and turn right through an ornamental gate to enter the churchyard of Hill Chapel. There is a separate toilet block on the left, usually open.

The Chapel was built in 1754 and is dedicated to St Francis of Assisi.

5. On reaching the chapel doors, turn right through the gravestones on a narrow path down to the road.
6. Turn right and walk on the road to the junction with Broadith Lane.

You now have the option of two routes:
For the longer walk go to no. 7
For the shorter walk go to no. 18

Option A (longer walk)

7. Continue up the hill to the top of the brow until you see an opening on the right with a bridleway sign.
8. Turn down the track and at gates to Old Hall keep left skirting the property and go through a new wooden gate.
9. Keep ahead once through the gate, keeping the field boundary on your right. At the next gate enter an enclosed path that leads to the road, emerging by some Accrington brick semis.
10. Turn left and continue along the road until you come to the Grapes Inn. From the Grapes take the road leading to the school and church.

11. Take the grassed track to the left of the church wall as far as a gate and go through into a field and turn left to walk along the left-hand boundary until you come to a gap in the hedge. This may have a gate propped up to block it but you need to go through the gap and look half right for the buildings at the far side of the field. The footpath goes straight across and so should you.

Option A (longer walk) continued

12. Having done so, take the plank across the ditch and then a stile, don't worry if the dogs bark in the garden, they're doing their job!
13. Follow a line of old hawthorns to a stile and gate and then head slightly right, passing to the right of two ponds to reach a stile by a lone beech tree. From here head slightly left, passing a larger pond to your left then going through a gateway and in the next field keep ahead in the direction of a large barn, looking for a double metal gate to gain access to a concrete track. Turn right along it
14. Where it splits take the right fork and follow the track past a nicely restored property called Mill Brook Barn. Turn down to the right to meet Mill Brook but don't cross it, take the stile on the right and take the narrow path alongside it.
15. On coming to the buildings of Goosnargh Mill, follow the right of way through the yard and meet Mill Lane by the bridge over the brook.
16. Turn right and at the top of the rise take the stile on the left and follow the field boundary on the left, negotiating four stiles, crossing a track at the fifth stile before heading towards an electricity pylon in the field ahead.
17. Keep to the left of it and you'll come to a stile which leads onto Broadith Lane, turn left.

Now follow the shorter walk from no. 18

Option B (shorter walk)

18. Cross the stone bridge on Broadith Lane and go up the hill and at the bend keep right onto Ford Lane.
19. Just before the ford, take the stile on the left and keep alongside the brook, entering a badly churned-up field which is quite awkward to cross. Stay on the stream side of the fence and cross a plank bridge over the brook down to your right.

Option B (shorter walk) continued

20. Turn left once across the plank and follow the stream tributary which soon peters out.
21. Cross the next stile and keep beside a left-hand boundary until you reach a gateway where a track begins. Stay with this track and go through the left of two gates then cut through the right-hand hedge and head for the two buildings ahead, barn conversions known as Higher Beesley Farm.
22. At the gate to these properties turn right, go through a hedge and emerge on the golf course created in 2005 out of former farm land.
23. Stay on the path through the fairway and after passing the club house (or wooden shed with an honesty box) keep forward to the farm buildings of Whinnyclough and turn left on the track to reach the road.
24. Turn right on the road and back to Ye Horns Inn
